

Insurance For Charitable Organisations

As a charitable organisation, social enterprise or not for profit group, you know how important it is to make a positive impact in your community and beyond.

In order to continue doing so, it's essential to protect your business from any potential risk or financial loss.

That's where Charity Insurance comes in. Charity Insurance provides covers for a range of unforeseen events that could potentially harm your charitable business activities. Whether it's protecting your volunteers, damage to your stock, accidents on your premises, or theft, having the right insurance policy in place can help safeguard your organisation

What Cover Do I Need?

Due to the complexity of many charitable organisations, it is advisable to speak with our charity specialists to assess your individual needs. However, dependent on your charity type and activities, the following covers are normally applied (but not limited to):

- Public Liability Insurance
- Employers Liability Insurance (Including cover for volunteers)
- Trustee Indemnity Insurance
- Property and Material Damage Cover
- Business Interruption Insurance
- Legal Expenses

Additional covers can include:

- Cyber Insurance
- Money Insurance
- Personal Accident Cover
